

ABSTRACT. We call a holomorphic function f on a domain in \mathbb{C}^n locally toral at the point P in the n -torus if the intersection of the zero set of f with the n -torus has dimension $n - 1$ at P . We study the interplay between the structure of locally toral functions and the geometry of their zero sets.